Gone With Two Children and $400. A mystery that is exciting the residents of Colchester became known in this city Monday. Last Friday night, Mrs. Samuel McDonald wife of one of the the town's well known lumber men, left her home and no trace of her has been found, although a diligent warry has been kent as her has been found, although a dili-gent search has been kept up.

Mrs. McDonald was accompanied by two of her children, Lizzie, aged 12, and, a baby. The story around the vil-lage is that Mrs. McDonald obtained something like $400 and sent her daughter Mabel over to Charles Brown's to hire a team. She then drove off with the three children, but the team was returned later by Mabel, who, it is said, refuses to say anywho, it is said, refuses to say any hing relative to her mother's where abouts or actions except that she let her out of the team and does not know where she has gone. The woman has not been in the best of health of late, and it is helieved that this is partially responsible for her disappearance. A careful search has been made among her acquaint-ances, but up to a late hour Monday evening nothing could be learned rel-tive to her strange disappearance

HAS TRAVELED 4,500 MILES. Small Dog Accompanies Master on

Long Trips. A sleek and intelligent looking little black spaniel perched within the confines of a little brass railing mounted on the flat part of the mudguard over the right forward wheel of a gray runabout that passed through Danielson Monday morning, made a hit with those who saw the unique arrangement. Mind you, this little dog was not tied on, nor was it impossible for him to fall off his narrow "bridge," but, like a good sailor, he rode with grace.
